President's Message

We are blessed to live in such a beautiful location. On our vacation we saw a number of our country's wonders, including the Grand Canyon, the red rock formations of Sedona and the Monuments Valley, the Rocky Mountains and more. Returning from my travels always gives me a fresh perspective; and the conclusion is always the same. You can't beat California for both beauty and diversity. Beyond that, Santa Cruz County is a jewel. It's always good to be back home.

I am sorry to have missed the meeting on Saturday evening. Thank you to Lorraine Margon for pulling everything together. Also, thank you to Grace Gerbrandt for taking care of business in my absence.

Our state convention takes place this weekend in San Mateo. I am truly looking forward to the workshops and speakers. It will be good to re-engage with people that one rarely sees, except at such events, as well as the opportunity to make connections with new people. If you have never attended convention, you should consider doing so in the future.

It is a pleasure to serve the Santa Cruz County Branch of AAUW. It's good to be back here with you.

Have a wonderful month.

Judy Cavin Brown

President,
 AAUW Santa Cruz County Branch

Sad News...long time member Lee Gilbert passed away last week. She had recently been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Lee was very active in AAUW and we will greatly miss her infectious smile and warmth. A memorial service will be held later this month or in early May.

Let Hospitality Chair Anne McCallum know if you hear of anyone who needs a kind thought or some cheering up. Tel. 465-1840.

LAF News

The Hunting Ground Documentary

On April 9, twenty ladies attended the annual Legal Advocacy Fund presentation, a screening of the 2015 documentary “The Hunting Ground.” The tagline for this film is: Their dream school will become a nightmare. This sums up the unfortunate reality that one in every five young women will be sexually assaulted on campus during her college experience. The movie exposes the way this happens, the reaction of college administration who often cover up these assaults, and what is (or isn’t) being done to prosecute assailants.

“The Hunting Ground” premiered at Sundance and has been screened at over 700 colleges as well as at The White House. AAUW of California will screen this film at the April 15-17 convention.

AAUW, at the national level, is actively involved in advocating legislation that forces schools to step up and work to change the culture on their campuses. AAUW also provides tools to college administrators and students to help them appropriately address sexual harassment and assault on campus.

This film is highly recommended to you. It is available on Netflix, Amazon, iTunes and Google Play.

Local Scholarship News

Be sure to send in your reservations for our annual Scholarship Lunch to be held May 14th at Seascape Resort. Tech Trek News

After interviewing sixteen girls from five different schools, the interview committee selected one girl from each school. It was a difficult job to make the final selection, as all the girls were excellent candidates. The girls are from the following schools who participated in the Tech Trek program: Aptos Jr. High,; Lakeview Middle (Watsonville); New Brighton Middle (Capitola); San Lorenzo Valley Middle (Felton); Scotts Valley Middle. Two alternates were also chosen. The paperwork has been sent to the camp registrar. Now the girls have to register online with AAUW National because it is no longer just a California program. After I make sure that has been done, I can relax.

Thanks again to all who helped in some way, from writing letters to interviewing—Jean Gregson, Kit Hein, Geri Williams, Joan Rider, Kathy Oing, Bettye Pena.

It is very rewarding to know that there are such dedicated teachers and students in our schools. The Tech Trek camp at Stanford will be July 3rd-9th.

AAUW Santa Cruz County Branch Interest Groups

All work and no play will make you dull--and to counteract that we have a variety of interest groups enjoyed by many of our members. Some have gone on for years!

Some of these groups are close to capacity (limited by how much room people have in their homes) but it's always possible to start a new section. If you're interested in starting a new group, check with Rosemary Anderson, she will be able to give you some pointers.

Membership in these interest groups is a privilege of AAUW membership; you may bring a non-member guest three times but then we ask that they join AAUW if they wish to continue to attend. In order to attract new members and make AAUW's aims and goals more visible to the public, our luncheons/meetings are open to the public. Spouses, partners and guests are welcome to attend the Dining Out and Evening Gourmet groups.

Book Groups

Our book groups have become extremely popular. Numbers in the groups fluctuate, and if you're interested contact the leaders to see if there's an opening at your preferred time. A new group is not difficult to establish, that's how we ended up with three!

Tuesday Evening Books, Leader Jeanne Jorgensen,

"Bookies" the Tuesday evening book group will meet on May 3, 2016, at 7:00pm at Joyce Hopkins' home, 251 Beach Pines Dr., Aptos. We will discuss ALL THE LIGHT WE CANNOT SEE by Doerr with Joan Schwimmer leading the discussion. Call 688-2397 for directions. All are welcome.

Thursday Afternoon Books, Section One, Leader Carole Beckett, phone 457-2992, email cabeckett@sbcglobal.net;

The Thursday Afternoon Book Group will meet on April 28th at 1pm at the home of Jean Gregson, 148 Zinfandel Circle, Scotts Valley. The book for discussion is Beyond Belief: My Secret Life Inside Scientology and My Harrowing Escape by Jenna Miscavige Hill. Jean's phone is 831-245-3639 and her email is jeangregson@comcast.net.

On May 26th, the meeting will be at the home of Barbara Lewis, 851 Lost Acre Dr., Felton. Her phone is 335-7816 and her email is bobbi44@gmail.com. The book we are reading is The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd and the discussion leader will be Beth Svee.

Thursday Afternoon Books, Section Two, leader Dorothy Patrick, dorothypat@yahoo.com. This group reads one book each month.

On April 28, we meet to review Children's Crusade by Ann Packer at Dottie Smith's house. RSVP to Dottie if you cannot attend.

Reader's Theater

The Readers Theater interest group will be meeting April 18 and May 16. To join and for further information, contact Barbara Lewis, chairperson of this interest group, by telephone at 335-7816 or by email at bobbi44@gmail.com.

The Lunch Bunch meets on the first Thursday of the month. All AAUW members are welcome to join us. Join us for lunch at the Chaminade on May 5. Contact Kathy Oing irishpml@yahoo.com for more information.

Bridge

Dining Out—Seeking a new leader This is a lot like Lunch Bunch except it's in the evening and spouses/partners are included. If you are interested in leading the group in trying different restaurants around town, contact former leader Linda Owens, 408-204-0408, jowens7069@aol.com.

Walking Group

AAUW WASHINGTON UPDATE

Equal Pay Day is upon us! On Tuesday, April 12, we'll mark the symbolic day when average women's wages catch up with men's from the previous year. That's right! The average woman working full time in the U.S. typically has to work 15 months to earn what a white male did in just 12. And if you think that's bad, it's even worse for women of color and moms who get their own Equal Pay Days to mark the extra time they have to put in to break even.

We're busy getting ready to mark the day with actions and events on college campuses, at state capitols, in the community, on Capitol Hill, and at AAUW headquarters. In some exciting news, Academy Award-winning actress and equal pay advocate Patricia Arquette will be at AAUW's Equal Pay Day block party! You know who isn't busy? Congress. We keep holding out hope that Congress will act to pass the Paycheck Fairness Act, but gridlock and partisan posturing keep getting in the way.

But there is light on the legislative horizon! State policy makers are perking up and taking notice of their constituents' concerns regarding equal pay. In their 2016 State of the State addresses, New York Governor Andrew Cuomo and Louisiana Governor John Bel Edwards each spoke about equal pay. Unfortunately, no other governor acknowledged the need to tackle pay inequality. Unsurprisingly, many of the gubernatorial addresses focused on the economy. What could be more crucial to a working, thriving state economy than providing fair and equitable pay to its citizens? Equal pay is good for everyone.

Fortunately, state legislatures are paying more attention. State houses around the country are seeing a deluge of equal pay legislation this year, with bills introduced or pending in 34 states thus far. I'm proud to say that AAUW members have been leading that charge. While some of those bills have failed due to roadblocks or short legislative sessions, several are moving forward and are likely to pass this year. Nebraska and Utah have already amended their laws to protect more people from pay inequality, and the New Jersey legislature passed a bill that is awaiting Governor Chris Christie's signature. As of today, bills in Colorado, Hawaii, Maryland, Massachusetts, and Oklahoma have passed at least one chamber of their state legislatures.

It's time for citizens in every state to join together and tell their state AND federal representatives that women need equal pay today, not tomorrow, and certainly not 100 years from now. Let's make this Equal Pay Day the last one we have to commemorate.

State Policy Analyst

AAUW Stands with Senators to Urge Passage of Paycheck Fairness Act

On Wednesday, AAUW stood with senators on Capitol Hill to call on Congress to pass the Paycheck Fairness Act. Introduced by Sen. Barbara Mikulski (D-MD), the legislation aims to close the gender pay gap by building on the Equal Pay Act of 1963. AAUW Vice President of Government Relations Lisa Maatz highlighted the bill's importance in Sen. Mikulski's press release by stating, "On behalf of AAUW's members nationwide, I encourage Congress to seize the broad public and political support for equal pay as an opportunity to come together on one of the most fundamental economic issues of our time." Watch a recording of the press conference here.
